Overview

The economic recovery from Covid-19 offers an opportunity to accelerate reforms in VET (vocational education and training) and strengthen its resilience, notably by digitizing learning offers and methods and agile adaptation to changing labour market needs.

The CIRCULO project aims to support VET providers to provide high-quality online education to underpin a bright and sustainable future for learners and the environment by presenting a bespoke range of resources that develop circular knowledge infused with an entrepreneurial spirit.

Objectives

The project aims to provide VET learners, young people, and workers with an online training map for:

- Building and understanding the principles for a circular economy.
- Developing a toolkit to build entrepreneurial spirit,
- Gaining a broader understanding of VET practices and improving the competencies in teaching VET professionals through the planned learning activities and the online e-Network.

Results

A Toolkit of Digital Skills Development that will support VET tutors build an entrepreneurial spirit to their learners.

A Training manual that will assist VET tutors to provide appropriate sustainable business development support and vocational guidance to potential innovators as the circular economy develops.

The eLearning Platform and eNetwork that will provide access to the CIRCULO Training Map for the development of circular economy principles and Toolkit for entrepreneurial competencies and all learning resources developed.
