

NETIQUETTE+ AT A GLANCE

The Netiquette+ project aims to support adult educators in mainstreaming and transferring relevant knowledge and skills on netiquette, fostering low skilled adults' and adult learner's awareness, knowledge and skills to take part in the digital society critically, consciously and responsibly.

Final Conference and Transnational Partners Meeting in Prague, Czech Republic

The Netiquette+ consortium met on the 29th and 30th of November 2023 in Prague, Czech Republic. Representatives from the nine partner organisations in the Czech Republic, Portugal, Germany, Cyprus, Greece, Belgium, Spain, France and Turkey met to discuss the final steps of the project. During the meeting, the project partners had the opportunity to discuss the finalising stage of the results. They set the ground for the project activities at all levels (project management, financials, dissemination, and quality assurance).

The concluding conference for the Netiquette+ project was a resounding success, held in the enchanting city of Prague. Bringing together participants, educators, and stakeholders from diverse corners of Europe, the event served as a platform to unveil and showcase the impactful outcomes of our collaborative efforts. The picturesque backdrop of Prague added an extra layer of inspiration to the presentations, where the culmination of months of hard work and cross-cultural exchange was celebrated. Attendees had the opportunity to witness firsthand the tangible results of the Netiquette+ project. The conference not only highlighted the project's achievements but also fostered a sense of community and shared commitment to ongoing collaboration, ensuring that the positive impacts continue to reverberate across borders and educational landscapes.
